Ashura

when skies wept blood

when Imam Hussain (sws) was martyred , the sky rained blood.
butter and milk were also turned as red as blood.

It is reported that when Imam Hussein (sws) was Martyred not only the residents of the heavens cried for Imam Hussein (sws), but even the skies cried for him.

Imam Mehdi weeps blood for Imam Hussain (sws)

Yes it is true. Imam Mehdi, may Allah hasten his reappearance, mourns for Imam Hussain (sws) every day - night and day - and he weeps blood for his greatgrandfather, as seen from his declaration he makes in his Ziyarat, know as Ziarat al-Nahiya: ". . . now that I could not be with you on the day of Ashura to defend you and fight off your enemies, I shall mourn you every morning and every evening, and I shall weep blood for you instead of tears...
